

Higher Education Focus on Greater Importance

The Final B. Pharmacy Students appeared in various competitive examinations and achieved good ranks for good and quality education program in their higher education. All the Students who appeared in PGE CET examination qualified and ready to choose for fascinated branch in their M.Pharmacy.

Pharmacovigilance Week Celebrations

The PHARMACOVIGILANCE WEEK CELEBRATIONS -2022 was celebrated in the adorable environment of Annamacharya in association with Indian Pharmacopoeia Commission. The Chief Guest, Dr. P. Rajesh, MBBS, M.D, Professor & Head, Department of Pharmacology, Government Medical College, Kadapa, spoke an focused concept involved in the PHARMACOVIGILANCE, the ADR occurs in patients with prolonged drug use without the advice of Physician. Dr. D. Swarnalatha, Principal, ANCP, instructed all the participants to follow the suggestions given by the speaker to deserve for affordable future in the profession of pharmacy.

Quest On Formulations of Pulmonary Drug Delivery System for Future Supplement in Pharma

The SEND OFF FUNCTION was conducted in the adorable campus of ANCP by the Fifth year Pharam.D students. The students actively involved in the celebrations and were given better advises on their role to fulfil and cure future dreadful diseases.

Chief Guest, Sri. C. Yella Reddy, Vice-chairman, conveyed a message on curative properties of drugs in action towards diseases. As most of the people in the world have been suffering from Corona Virus, the primary supplement of treatment is providing medicine to patient through NASAL ROUTE to save the life of patient. In this treatment the future formulations and administration of drugs must be thorough Nasal for early recovery of patient.

Dr. D. Swarnalatha, Principal, ANCP, gave her probable message in the field of PHARMA RESEARCH to do new formulations which could be administered through nasal route of drug delivery.

Plant Medicines Cures Diseases Naturally With Mitigated Side Affects

The ANTICANCER PLANTS AND ANTIDIABETIC Plants Plantation program was conducted in the greenery area of ANCP for creating awareness to students and public in visits to institution. VINCA which is a medicine used in the AYURVEDA in Chinese and African countries formulations at low dose acts as a anticancer, antidiabetic agent with mitigated side effects on its use explained by the Principal, Dr. D. Swarnalatha.

Mrs. B.Nirmala Devi, NSS Program Officer, Mr. Y. Pradeep Kumar, pharmacy students actively involved in plantation program.

INTERNATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY

The international girl child day with the THEME: OUR TIME IS NOW – OUR RIGHTS, OUR FUTURE was conducted by the Gender discrimination cell, Women Empowerment cell of ANCP, for the girl students of the college.

Dr. D. Swarnalatha spoke a message on a phrase A WORLD WITHOUT GIRL IS AS IMPOSSIBLE AS A WORLD WIHTOUT WATER on behalf of girl students.

Police Commemoration Day

Annamacharya college of Pharmacy was celebrated in the ecofriendly and natural friendly campus of ANCP on recently the historical event took place in the boarder of India & China.

Sri. M.Prasad Reddy garu teacher, MPPS school, Mandaram, spoke in definition as police as public officer for Legal Investigations and criminal emergencies.

Sri. M. Bakhavastalam garu SI Police Mannur, Rajampet explained the services offered by the police dept. to make problem less society and a gifted society.